Once you have gotten the basics, there are many more books on advanced techniques, and genealogy of specific regions, family names, etc.

In addition to these basics, there is the Genealogy Collection, maintained by the Conejo Valley Genealogical Society (CVGS). They have reference books, magazines, and computer resources. There are also CVGS volunteers there to help you, check the schedule at the Reference Desk, Genealogy desk area, or online at <http://www.conejovalleysocietysociety.org/library-volunteer-calendar.html>

All the genealogy books can be found by searching the Thousand Oaks Library's online catalog, see: www.tolibrary.org
